

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, May 10. 1705.

London, May 10.

THE Preambles and Tenour of an Arret of the King of France concerning the new Denomination of the Value of his Coyn; and also of his late Declaration, in which, to raise the Credit of his borrowing Chest, he offers 10 per Cent. Interest for the Sums that shall be paid into it; promis'd in the Courant of April 30, are as follows: To which is added a fresh Arret about his Coyn, that came by the last Mail from Holland.

THE King having order'd by an Arret of his Council of the 17th of March last, that till the 15th of this present Month of April, for the last Delay, the new Species of Money should be current, the Louis d' Or at 14 Livres 15 Sols, and the Crown at 3 Livres 19 Sols, and that the ancient and unreform'd Species should be receiv'd in the Office of the Mints and of the Receipt of the royal Revenue, at the Rate of 12 Livres 10 Sols the Louis d' Or, and 3 Livres 12 Sols the Crown, after which Time the said Species shall be reduc'd, viz. the Louis d' Or to 14 Livres 10 Sols, the Crown to 3 Livres 18 Sols, and the lesser Species in Proportion: And his Majesty taking into Consideration that between the 1st day of this Month of April and the 15th, he shall pay off a considerable part of the promissory Notes of the borrowing Chest, and other Sums, which Money going into the Hands of private Persons, they will be liable to lose some part of it by the Diminution of the Species, unless he give them Time by a new Delay to dispose of their Money. But seeing the Species cannot long continue current at the present Rates, by Reason of the Necessity of reducing them nearer to the Value of foreign Coyn, his Majesty has thought fit, to order at this Time a new Diminution of the Species that are newly reform'd and of those that are still unreform'd: The Report being heard of the Sieur Chamillart, Councelleor in Ordinary of the Royal Council, Comptroller General of the Finances; his Majesty being in Council has order'd and orders, that till the 1st Day of May next the Species that have not been reform'd pursuant to the Edict of the Month of May of last Year, shall continue to be receiv'd in the Offices of the Mint, &c. that is to say the Louis d' Or at 13 Livres 10 Sols, and the Crown at 3 Livres 12 Sols. After the Expiration of which Time, and beginning with the said 1st Day of May next, the said unreform'd Species shall not be receiv'd in the said Mints, at more than 12 Livres 10 Sols the Louis d' Or, and 3 Livres 8 Sols the Crown; conformably to the Arrrets of Council of the 23d of December 1704 the 3d of January and the 17th of March last, which shall be put in Execution till the said 1st of May next, according to their Form and Tenour, without Prejudice to the Fines, Confiscations and other Penalties, denounc'd against those who shall melt down, proffer, receive or keep the said Species not reform'd according to the Arrrets of Council of the 16th and 26th of August, the 11th of November, and the 23d of December 1704, and the 17th of March of the present Year, which his Majesty intends shall be put in Execution. He likewise orders that till the said 1st of May next the reform'd Species shall continue to be current in Trade, viz. the Louis d' Or at 14 Livres 15 Sols, and the Crown at 3 Livres 19 Sols; the lesser Species in Proportion; after which Day, the said Species shall be reduc'd, viz. the Louis d' Or to 14 Livres 10 Sols, the Crown to 3 Livres 18 Sols, &c. Given at Versailles, April 7. 1705. &c.

The following Declaration was Registered in the Parliament at Paris the 27th of March,

LOUIS, &c. The Sums paid into the borrowing Chest have been so helpful to us, that we have thought we could not take too much Care to reimburse those who advanc'd the said Sums, and who might have Occasion to employ their Money another way: And this we have begun to do by such Means as to us appear'd the most proper. We think fit besides, to testify to our Subjects the Satisfaction we take in the past voluntary Assistance they have given us, to offer them new Means for the future of employing their Money to greater Advantage than was allow'd in the Establishment of the borrowing Chest. For these Causes, and others moving us thereto, by the Advice of our Council, and of our certain Knowledge, full Power, and Royal Authority, we have by these Presents sign'd with our Hand, pronounc'd, declar'd and order'd, pronounce, declare and Order, and our Will and Pleasure is, that beginning on the First of April next, the Sureties of Charles Ferreau, Farmer-General of our United-Farms, nominated in our Declaration of the Month of March, 1702. to sign, as well for themselves as their Partners, promissory Notes to all those who shall pay Money into the borrowing Chest, or shall require new Notes instead of the Payment of those that are grown due, or shall grow due hereafter, shall be oblig'd to give the said promissory Notes, for so long a Time as shall be judg'd convenient, adding to the Principal 10 per Cent. per Annum for Interest. And we expressly forbid all Brokers and other Persons whatever to Negotiate any Bills of Exchange, Notes payable to Bearer, Assignments on the Farms, &c. in any form or manner whatsoever, at an Interest or Profit exceeding 10 per Cent. on the Penalty of a Fine of 3000 Livres for the first Offence, and of a greater Fine for a second Offence, and even on the Penalty, if Brokers, of being forever debar'd following such their Employment, and if other Persons of being corporally punish'd, &c. Given at Versailles the 23d of March, in the Year of Christ, 1705. and of our Reign the 62d. Sign'd Louis; and underneath, By the King Phelipeaux, &c.

The King being inform'd that by the Payments which have been made this present Month, a considerable Quantity of Species of Gold and Silver is dispers'd into Trade, and that several private Persons not having plac'd out the Sums they have receiv'd, would be liable to the Loss from which his Majesty design'd to secure them by his Arret of the 7th of this Month, in prolonging to the 1st of May next Next the Currency of the reform'd Species, viz. the Louis d' Or at 14 Livres 15 Sols, and the Crowns at 3 Livres 19 Sols, the lesser Species in Proportion, unless his Majesty would be pleas'd to grant a new Delay, during which they might dispose of their Money. In which being willing to gratify them, and at the same time to fix the last Term for the Rate of unreform'd Species, after which those who shall still have any in their Hands, and shall have neglected to carry them to the Offices of the Mint and of the Receipt of the Royal Revenue, cannot complain of the certain Loss they will suffer: The Report of the Sieur Chamillart, &c. being heard: His Majesty in his Council, has order'd and orders, that the Diminution of the Species fix'd by the Arrêt of Council of the 7th of this present Month to commence the 1st of May ensuing, shall not take Place till the 1st of June next: He has also order'd and orders, that the reform'd Species shall be current during the said Month of May, at the rate order'd in the former Arrêts; and that the unreform'd Species shall be receiv'd in the Mints and Offices of Receipt of his Majesty's Revenues, at the Rate fix'd by the said Arrêts. Done in the King's Council of State, held at Marli the 21st of April, 1705. Sign'd Du Jardin.
